

1982-2024 PLEXUS EVENTS CHRONOLOGY

THE PLEXUS PRE-HISTORY IN THE 70'S

In a series of all night talks, in the fall of 1981, in the kitchen of Sandro Dernini's, in the East 6th Street, between Avenue A and First Avenue, in the Lower East Side of Manhattan, with Giancarlo Schiaffini and other two Italian musicians, Antonello Neri and Massimo Cohen, the seminal idea of Plexus came out. By discussing existing limitations of expression, within cultural institution programs, for contemporary experimental art works, they envisioned a new format of an independent multi-arts space. Where artists could have the freedom to express their researches, free to have their open critical dialogues, without filters, limitations, pressures, mediators (art critics, dealers, agents, etc.) from the artworld system. They felt, as a survival need, that it was necessary for "the artists in the first person" to create their own channels of communication, with their definitions or no definitions, in order to survive from the interferences of the art market system.

Schiaffini, Neri and Cohen were performing at the Center for Italian Contemporary Culture at New York University, directed by Sandro Dernini, a former biochemist at the University of Rome "La Sapienza" and cultural organizer for many years in Italy. Giancarlo Schiaffini and Sandro Dernini had a standing collaboration from Spazio A, an experimental alternative multi-arts cultural space opened in the mid 70's in Cagliari, by Sandro Dernini, Marilisa Piga, Pietro Zambelli, Piernicola Cocco, Annamaria Pillosu, Sandro Carboni, Paolo Cossu, Sandro Dernini, Marilisa Piga, and Emilietta.

It was located initially in a small space in the historical centre of Cagliari, piazza Martiri 1 then moved to a large warehouse, in via Cuoco 28, Pirri. Spazio A was associated to the L.I.A.C.A. (Lega Italiana Associazioni Culturali Alternative), very active in Rome. The Cineclub programme opened with the films "Chant d'Amour" by Jean Genet, "Age d'Or" by Luis Bunel, and "Transfert per camera verso Virulenzia" by Alberto Griffi on the theatre of Aldo Braibanti, followed by 24 hrs no stop marathons of mythological movies. The music programme featured: Giancarlo Schiaffini, Alvin Curran, Steve Lacy, Muhal Richard Abrams, Frederic Rzewski, Don Moye, Marcello Melis, Michiko Hirayama Antonello Neri, Massimo Urbani, Patrizia Scascitelli, Eugenio Colombo, Paolo Damiano, Michele Iannacone, Martin Joseph, Tommaso Vittorini, Danilo Terenzi, Bruno Tommaso, Bill Connors, Frances-Marie Uitti, Marianne Eckstein; Il Quartetto Nuova Musica: Massimo Cohen, Margot Burton, Luigi Lanzillotta, Mario Buffa, Suono Officina with Mauro Palmas, Andrea Centazzo, Danilo Rea, Strutture di Supporto, Sandro Satta, Paolino della Porta, Tomato Edda dell'Orso, Tomatocheckup con Alberto Susnik, Paolo Mereu, Alberto Cabiddu, Giovanni Piga. The theatre programme featured: Roberto Benigni, Remondi e Caporossi, Aldo Braibanti with Maria Cumano Quasimodo and Pilar Castel, Dominot, Daniela Gara, Giuseppe Cederna, Ludovica Modugno e Gigi Angelillo, Massimo de Rossi, Collettivo di Parma Troupe Merletti Cappuccini e Capelliere, Mario Mieli, TAG di Mestre, Erio Masina.

1976-1978, Rome, L.I.A.C.A. (Italian League Alternative Cultural Associations), based in Rome, was very active, within that particular historical Italian political context of the 70's, in defending the freedom of expression and association, against the police's repression of most all alternative cultural spaces as sites of political dissent. The L.I.A.C.A. was constituted in 1976 in Rome, made initially by AIACE, Filmstudio, Teatro in Trastevere, l'Occhio L'Orecchio La Bocca, Politecnico, Alberico, Beat 72, La Maddalena, Mago d'Oz, il Sabelli, La Comune, Cento Fiori L'Officina, il Murales, lo Zanzibar all based in Rome, Obraz Cineclub in Milan and Spazio A in Cagliari. Sandro Dernini as representative of Spazio A. was part of the L.I.A.C.A. National Secretariat with Giovanna Ducrot, Mago d'Oz, and Massimo Vincenti, Cineclub Montesacro Alto.

1978, Rome, The First Cultural Slaves Market for Freedom in Expression, organized by L.I.A.C.A. at Il Cielo performance space, Trastevere, Rome, in which some members sold themselves for 24 hours as slaves, free to sell themselves. In the fall 1978, in Rome, Giovanna Ducrot, Sandro Dernini, Massimo Vincenti and other LIACA members staged a provocative controversial cultural slaves market auction happening, at the performance space Il Cielo of Romano Rocchi, in Trastevere. There Maurizio Millenotti, Rossella Manfredi, Flavio Merkel, Paola Muzzi, and may be also Cristina Torelli, sold themselves as slaves for 24 hours in a market auction open to the general public.

It was a radical action to gain attention on the police's repressive action against the freedom of association and expression in Italy in that repressive historical political period. Within the Italian political context of the 70's, with student protests and Red Brigades, the L.I.A.C.A. had a very active role on defending the rights of the Article 18 of the Italian Constitution of freedom of expression, against the police's tentative of closing most of all alternative cultural spaces as sites of political dissent. L.I.A.C.A. played also a very important seminal role in the birth of the "Estate Romana", a cultural program initiated by the Cultural Affairs Commissioner of the City of Rome, Renato Nicolini.

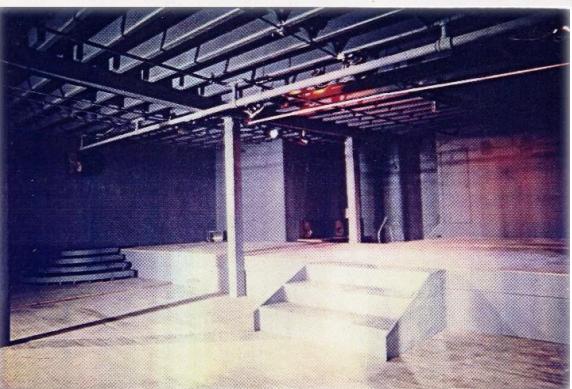

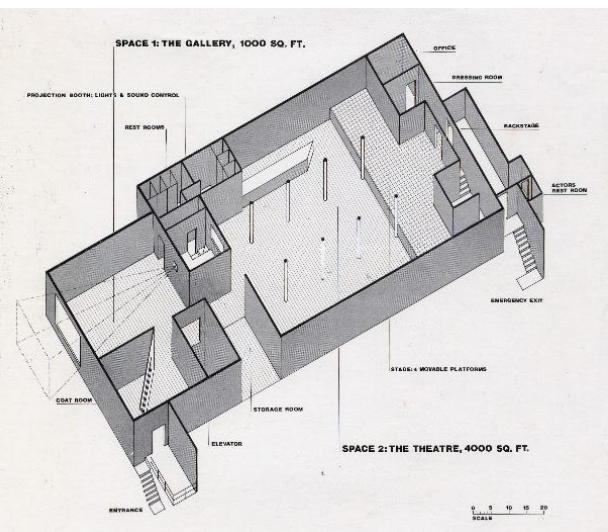

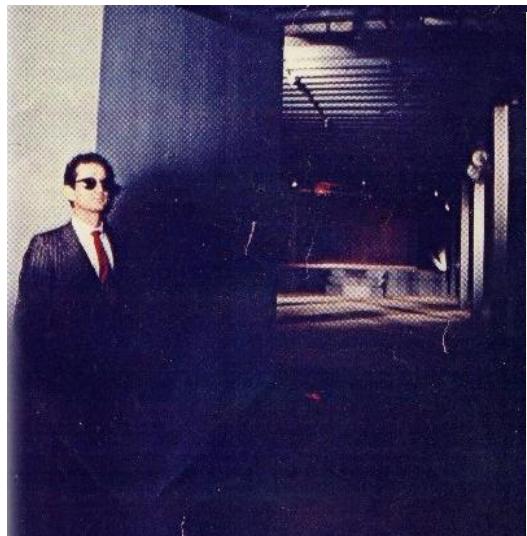

1981, New York University: The Artist in the First Person, an independent cultural programme organized by Sandro Dernini, as Executive Director of the New York University Center for Contemporary Italian Culture, New York, opened by a performance of Massimo Sarchielli.

DAKARTOFF

LA 7^e BIENNALE
L'ART AFRICAIN
DAKAR 10 mai - 10 juin 2002
MUSÉE NATIONAL PROVISOIRE
DANS LES STÈLES S

Le 10 mai 2002, deux centaines de personnes ont participé à la cérémonie officielle de l'inauguration de la 7^e Biennale Africaine de Dakar. Celle-ci a été suivie par une cérémonie de clôture le 10 juin, avec les hommages et l'appréciation de l'art africain à travers le monde entier.

Depuis le début des années 1990, les artistes africains ont fait leur place dans l'art contemporain mondial. Les œuvres exposées au cours de cette Biennale sont l'expression d'un art africain qui n'a pas de frontières, mais qui est enraciné dans la culture et la tradition de l'Afrique. Ces œuvres sont un témoignage de la richesse et de la diversité de l'art africain, qui représente les peuples et les cultures, des îles éloignées aux plus grandes villes, des régions rurales aux zones urbaines. L'art africain est un art universel qui transcende les frontières et les cultures, et qui nous rappelle notre humanité commune.

Après la visite des peintures, sculptures, photographies et installations, les visiteurs peuvent se délecter d'un programme culturel varié, qui comprend des conférences, des ateliers, des performances et des projections de films. Tous ces événements sont organisés pour promouvoir la compréhension et l'appréciation de l'art africain, et pour célébrer la richesse et la diversité de l'art contemporain mondial.

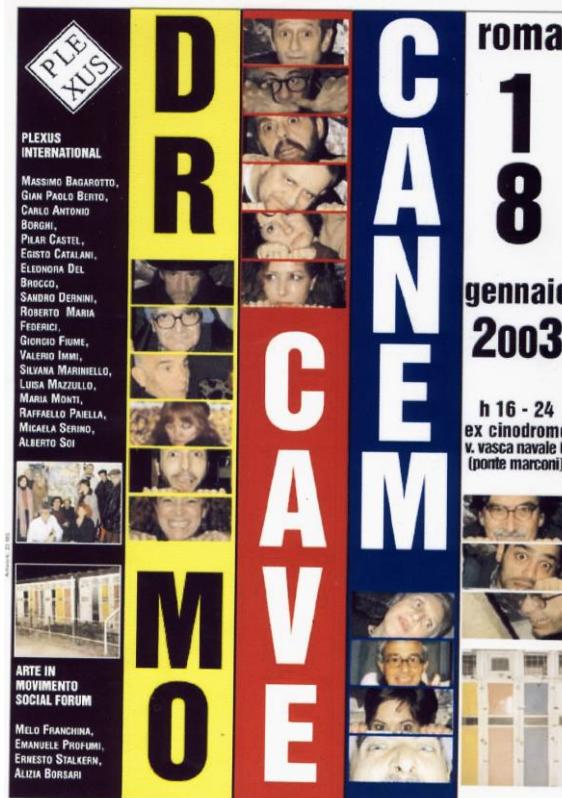

Les installations visuelles sont également très intéressantes, et elles couvrent des thèmes de soins pour l'environnement, de droits humains, de paix et de justice, et de développement durable. Ces œuvres sont réalisées par des artistes africains qui utilisent leurs talents pour exprimer leurs idées et leurs préoccupations. Tous ces artistes sont invités à partager leur vision de l'art africain, et à nous montrer comment ils utilisent leur art pour faire une différence dans le monde.

La 7^e Biennale Africaine de Dakar est une occasion unique de découvrir l'art africain et ses nombreux talents. Nous espérons que vous apprécierez cette exposition et que vous serez inspirés par les œuvres exposées.
